Alliance Française of Northwestern Connecticut is a privately-funded American organization which is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization. All contributions except membership fees are tax deductible.

Membership

As a member, you will join over 160 other French enthusiasts who come from more than 30 towns in Northwestern Connecticut. Here, you will be part of two groups: an American community interested in experiencing French culture and the cultures of other French-speaking countries; and a French community seeking to stay connected to their Francophone heritage.

With membership, you will be able to attend cultural events, join our French conversation groups or the pétanque league and, at very reasonable rates, to take French language courses. You will also be able to take advantage of our library of books, movies, magazines and games. Inquire (203-707-0710) about the latest discount information should you wish to order your own subscription to France-Amérique magazine.
